Last evening about 8 o'clock, the north and of the old Red Warehouse of Duniel Newhall, occupied by Hooker & Nickles, South Water street, near Walker's point bridge, burst through with a tremendous crash, and precipitated over 20,000 bushels of wheat into the river. There were over 60,000 bushels in the sarehouse, and it will all have to be removed into vessels and other buildings. Souse of it is now being transferred by a large number of workmen to vessels lying near the warshouse. The entire loss of the wheat will full upon Messrs. Hooker and Nickles, and of course there is no insurance against any such calamity. A good deal of the wheat that is now in the river will be get out again, but in such a damaged condition as not to be of mach value. This is a large number for any one State, and is owing to the fact that we have more regiments from Illinois stationed at this post and performing railroad guard duty at points adjacent, than from any other State. During the past five weaks the weather has been very cold and increasing, and our troops have suffered from exposure. Our regimental sick are larger than they have been at any time for six months. On the Sth inst I ristled Memphis, and inepected the hospital, or route. At Memphis is found twenty-five hundred eick, and the number daily increasing. Preparations are being made to accommodate five thousand patients. Surgeon Wertz is gring the matter his personal attention, and friends may rest assured that the sick will be well provided for. At Lagrange I find six hundred patients, General hospital No. 3, at this post, has been broken up. Surgeon Crawford, formerly in charge, has been appointed Chief of Hospitals. Dr. C. is an able and kind-hearted man. No better appointment could have been made.

At the post hospital is utill under the judicious management of Dr. Storkioff, surgeon of the Sth Illinois.

I forward by this mail to Colonel Williams, Commissary General, a report of my saritary disbursements at my quarters in Jackson and Bollvar, up to January 1, 1853. I cannot well express the gratitude of the sick and wounded soldiers for the munifount donations from the ciliagan of our State, and the great interests shown in their besidt by the various is deficed.

At the post hospital at Bollyar I found 300 sick. This hospital is still under the judicisms management of Dr. Storkioff, surgeon of the 45th Illinois.

I forward by this mall to Colonel Williams, Commissary General, a report of my sanitary disbursements at my quarters in sacknow and Bollyar, up to January I, 1863. I cannot well express the gratifule of the sick and wounded soldiers for the munifocant donations from the citizens of our State, and the great interest shown in their behalf by the various indicated and societies. These gifts have been timely and always such satisfies as were needed. The general tenor of the addresses showed no opposition to the Government, nor to a vigorous prosecution of the war—but an earnest opposition to the "monied distinction between the rich and the poor, as shown in Sec. 13 of the Conscription Act." They expressed themselves in favor of the Frussian system of conscription, which knows no distinction. An amouncement was made from the stand, that a tole graphic dispatch had just been sent to the President, and Mesars. THE NEWS.

The details of the loss of the ram Queen of the West, supplied by our correspondent, who was aboard of her, will be found in our dispatches. While engaging a fort she unfortunately run aground, and was disabled by a shot from the enemy's gun. Capt. Ellet, with a large portion of the crew, escaped, and arrived at Vicksburg. The gallant Captain, not at all disturbed, was to start with another ram to the scene of the disaster. The gunboat Iminapla is also smoon the rebel craft, on the Red River, and will, undoubtedly, give a good account of herseif.

The Illinois and Indiana soldieri al Vicksburg, have taken the Copperheads in hand, and have started a bombshell for the North which will be apt to damage the vipers.

Sanday night's dispatches make no important addition to the news previously received. The Conscription Bill will speedily become a law, having finally passed Congress. The Bank protectionlats have been foiled, and Mr. Chase has matters in his own way, giving him, as is just, his plan to be worked out on his own just, his plan to be worked out on his own responsibility. The New York Sunday Mercury is nothing, if not sensational, in its Washington dispatches, which we opine Orpheus C. Kerr has fallen to writing as a buriesque—certainly the best thing he has done in that line. There is no doubt has done in that line. There is no doubt of the desire of that purest of patriots, Thurlow Weed, and that is probably all the foundation the story has. The news from Kentucky declares all quiet.

A fight is reported at Greenville, in the viciality of Vicksburg, but the result was not known.

mand for land in this State; the sales of farms by the Iffinois Central Company in February exceed in number any ever reached in a single month since the office was opened. Two hundred and sixty-two purchasers, more than half of them Swedes and Germans on forty-acre tracis, some fifteen to twenty sales for fruit nurseries, south of Centralia, and, what is better, some sales to good Union men driven out from the South, make up the number of two hundred and sixty-two sales in one month. The Swedish settlement is being made in Ford county, about one hundred miles south of Chicago, on the branch line. The founders of this settlement have made a purchase of the Company upon the condition that the "Augustana College" shall be established there. This institution has already endowments from Sweden of a valuable library and some funds from contribution in that country. It is intended bribution in that country. It is intended to take a high rank among the educational institutions of this State.

The resolutions reported by Mr. Summer as chairman of the Committee on Foreign Relations, referred to in our dispatches this morning, and which were concurred in by Mesers. Let General Hunter has done his country a service in his action with a dialogal officer at Hilton Head. The days when military subordinates were allowed to demounce and obstruct with impunity the law sad policy of the Government they had sworn to support have passed away, never, we hope, to be restered. A certain freedom of speech and action which he may be a been tolerated by General Hunter, and he has taken steps to make the past manifest. Brig. Gen. Stevenson, in the plentitude of his hatred of the negro soldier and feet. Brig. Gen. Stevenson, in the plentitude of his hatred of the negro soldier and love for the negro slave, made public declaration that he would rether suffer a defeat of the Federal arms than win a vistory by the sid of negro soldiers. This statement heigh brought to the knowledge of General Hunter; he promply issued an order requiring Gen. Stevenson to report at once in agreet, and so to remain till the pleasure of the Fresidant in his case can be made known. We judge that whatever hostility to the Produmation and to the employment of negro troops may henceforth exist among Gen. Hanter's officers, will smolder in caultous slicince instead of breaking into voice from treacherous line.
